

PLC Home Learning Tasks

Hello PLC

I hope you enjoy our story this week, helping us learn all about our emotions.

Complete some Colour Monster challenges

- At the start of the story, the Colour Monster is feeling confused. When have you felt confused? What did you do in this situation? What can we do when we feel confused in the future?
- In this story, yellow refers to happiness, red is for anger and blue is linked to sadness. Do you agree with those colour choices? Why?
- Make a list of different emotions and think of times when you have experienced them.
- Think of other emotions and choose colours that might represent them (e.g. frustration, disgust, envy).
- Make a large-scale colour monster when he is different colours
- Write a separate story about an angry Colour Monster or a sad one

PLC Word of the Week

Content

Just like Mrs Jones' challenges- can you find out the meaning of our word, use our word in a sentence or use our word in a piece of writing?

Bonus challenges:

If our word was a colour, what colour might it be?

If our word was a picture, what might it look like?

If our word was an animal, what animal might it be?
