The statements below set out the agreement between school, child and parent for remote learning to take place with effective continuous education. If these conditions are not followed and school feels the child's engagement with education has started to dip, a review of this agreement will take place.

This may result in a referral to Education Welfare Service.

- Class teacher will provide daily online learning.
- Class teacher will give daily verbal (written where necessary) feedback to online work submitted by child(ren).
- Class teacher will provide weekly paper packs of work where required.
- Class teacher will provide feedback on work completed.
- Class teacher will support children in completing work if needed, online or paper-based.
- Parent(s) will collect paper packs of work from school every Monday at a time arranged with the office if required.
- Parent(s) will provide child with the resources and support necessary on a daily basis to complete all work provided by school.
- Child will complete work regularly, taking appropriate breaks similar to school.
- Parent(s) will return the completed pack of work to school the following Monday.
- Parent(s) will answer phone to school if possible, on each occasion, and if not able to, parents will call school back at the earliest opportunity and facilitate conversations between staff and child.
- Home visits may be conducted by the EWO on school's behalf.
- Parent(s) will answer the door on home visits and allow the EWO or a member of school staff to see and speak to the child. This may be through the window.

I agree to the above.
